Meet Up Group For Dads With Special Needs Loved Ones

Sat, Jan 23rd at 11:00 AM

Join Dads from South Florida, one Saturday a month at a group for dads with special needs loved ones in Sunrise Florida.

Our group is not professionally moderated by a therapist. Our group is not diagnosis or age specific and topics will vary based on suggestions by members.

Come talk about life, parenting,
marriage and more.

Learn new techniques to manage stress, enjoy your family time and learn from other dads whose experience and insight can help you in your walk as a parent and advocate.
